CHICAGO. May 30.—Governor Tanner, Mayor Harrison, General Thomas Anderson and other military and executive officials to-day reviewed the longest Memorial day parade that has turned out in this sity in years. The weather was perfect and the city was filled with out-of-town visitors. A most enthusiastic greeting was given 2000 soldiers of the Spanish war, a continued ovation marking their progress along the line of march. There were no special features attending the decoration of graves at the various cemedecoration of graves at the various ceme-

Almost an Entire Absence of Sporting Events Was Noticeable in Nebraska.

OMAHA, NEB., May 30.-Memorial day was more generally observed throughout Nebraska to-day than ever before. Owing to the strong sentiment against it there was an almost entire absence of sporting events. At McCook, a beautiful soldiers nument was dedicated. In the city the parade was headed by the G. A. R. posts. parade was headed by the G. A. R. posts, followed by the former members of the Second and Third Nebraska and those of the First regiment, who have returned from the Philippines, national guard companies, high school cadets, mail carriers and civic societies. The procession marched to Hanscom park, where appropriate exercises were held. At the cemeteries the graves of Union and Confederate veterans and two who died during the Spanish war, were decorated.

Little Prices Are to Be Expected Here.

They ought to be expected, and are realities. Most merchants don't sell notions and lines of little goods as low as they might. This store wants only the same profits on notions as it gets on all other lines, and that brings notion prices away below what you expect to pay.
